Projects on Vedic Mathematics

99. SHRI KAILASH PATI MISHRA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to refer to answer to Unstarred Question 2876 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 9th August, 1989 and state:

(a) whether in February, 1989 the Rashtriya Veda Vidya Pratishthan had recommended sanctioning of 3 different types of projects on Vedic Mathematics to competent mathematicians and computer scientists;

(b) if so, what was the nature and type of the suggested three projects;

(c) the name, status and address of the mathematicians and computer scientists to whom each project has been sanctioned; and

(d) the guidelines and outline of the action scheme regarding each of the projects?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (PROF. M. G. K. MENON): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The three projects are:

(i) Propagating the ideas brought out in the book 'Vedic Mathematics' written by Jagadguru Shankaracharya;

(ii) Exploring the possibilities of application of these ideas in appropriate computer software programmes; and

(iii) Expounding and developing mathematical foundations behind the various sutras.

(c) and (d) The Project Committee of the Rashtriya Veda Vidya Pratishthan has approved grant of a fellowship for research in Vedic Mathematics at the school level in the light of the book of Jagadguru Shankaracharya. The fellowship has been offered to Smt. Ranjana Chari, a teacher in the Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan to promote and carry out research into Vedic Mathematics for the purpose of establishing its applicability to modern mathematics.

Inclusion of Sutras of Vedic Mathematics as enrichment materials

100. SHRI KAILASH PATI MISHRA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to refer to answer to Unstarred Question 2876 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 9th August, 1989 and state what progress has been made so far in implementing the recommendation made by Rashtriya Veda Vidya Pratishthan that the National Council of Educational Research and Training may be requested to include some of the Sutras of Vedic Mathematics and
